

Air1 obviously touches lives (listener supported, no commercials). It would be a tragedy to displace Air1 by an LPFM broadcaster. Air1 has a large Lubbock audience (university-aged and younger). Their message/music is positive and hopeful. The stuff that changes lives! I pray my station is not forced off the air. God bless!